

Mahatma Gandhi P.G. College organizes numerous activities to sensitize students and employees to the constitutional obligations like values, rights, duties and responsibilities as the citizens of this Nation. To inculcate the human values, the college from time to time organizes different activities and lectures for the students, teaching and non teaching staff.

Spiritual activities and Meditation with Sahaj Yog is carried out in the college campus on every Sunday, along with other members of the Society. Blood donation camps are organized in collaboration with different health centres/organizations.

Physical Education department organises special classes on yoga, health, cleanliness, safety etc. All the teachers other employee, students participate and celebrate Independence Day, Republic Day, Gandhi Jayanti, Teachers' day, Ambedkar Jayanti, Youth Day, Science Day, International Yoga day, Birth and Death anniversaries of important personalities etc. are celebrated in the College with great zeal and enthusiasm. During Independence day, Republic Day etc. various activities and competitions are organized for teaching, non-teaching staff and students. Students are encouraged and supported to participate in all the social activities along with their college staff. Numerous competitions like debates, elocution, essay writing, singing, crafts, cookery are organized from time to time, which helps in sensitization of students and also the employees to realize their constitutional obligation like values right, duties and responsibilities

During activities organized by NSS of the college various activities like social awareness towards cleanliness, 'Matdata Jagrookta Abhiyan', 'Sadak Suraksha Abhiyan', 'Mangal Kamana Raily', 'Paryawaran Jarookta Abhiyan', 'Plastic Ban Drive' etc., the social sensitization is invoked and awareness towards social responsibility is inculcated.